TAKES CLAFFEY CASE UNDER ADVISEMENT Charged With Selling Liquor Illegally on Sunday—Defense Claims Beer Bought Previous Day.

Special Judge Wilbur Hammond before whom George Claffey was tried Thursday upon a charge of illegally selling liquor from a saloon owned by Ferdinand Krintzer at the corner of Hydraulic and Lasalle avs., on Sunday, Oct. 17, took the case under advisement and will announce his decision on Saturday.

Henry Smith and Detectives Lane and Dilinski were the principal witnesses for the state. Smith testified that he bought liquor in a boarding house above the saloon on Sunday from Claffey, who is a bartender in the place. An argument arose and Smith called the police. The defense contended that the only beer consumed in the place was some which had bought the day before and which was kept in the ice box of the boarding house which is operated by a Mrs. Thomas. She testified that she saw no liquor sold in the place, and that other employees of the saloon who stays at the boarding house. Krintzer testified that he had no knowledge of the sale of liquor.

DECISION OF LOCAL COURT IS REVERSED

Suit of Joseph Benkowski Vs. Sanders Egbert Co., Will be Retried.

The appellate court Thursday reversed the decision handed down by a superior court jury in 1913 in the case of Joseph Benkowski against the Sanders, Egbert Co.

The decision of the lower court was in favor of the Sanders-Egbert Co. the plaintiff being ordered to pay the costs in the case. The trial was before a jury and held before Special Judge A. L. Hubbard. The decision of the higher court remands the case back to the superior court for a new trial.

Benkowski was suing the Sanders-Egbert Co. for damages he received while working in their employ. He was unloading logs from a flat car at the time of the accident. According to the testimony at the time there remained but one more log to be removed from the car, when the hook on the skid he was using, broke. This precipitated him from the car to the ground, and he sustained several fractured ribs, his body striking a sharp corner of the logs which had already been unloaded.

The decision in the lower court in favor of the Sanders-Egbert Co. was handed down Sept. 30, 1913. The decision in the higher court was made with the Hon. Joseph G. Ibach presiding.

Attys. Wypysznski, Yeagley and Fergus represented the plaintiff, Benkowski and Slick were counsel for the Sanders-Egbert Co.

A new trial probably will be held in the superior court during the next term.

FOUR CASES DISMISSED

Husbands Who Caused Quartets' Arrest Refuse to Prosecute.

Charges of adultery against Elizabeth Dean, May Metz, Al Hastings and Edwin Donahue of Niles, were dismissed in the city court. The complaints against the four people were made by J. R. Metz and W. F. Dean, husbands of the two women who had the party arrested here some time ago. According to the prosecutor the husbands have decided not to prosecute the cases and will not come here to act as witnesses.

WEDDING GOWN IS ABOUT COMPLETED

Intimation That Ceremony Will Not be Much Longer Delayed.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 29.—The wedding gown in which Mrs. Norman Galt will be married to Pres't Wilson is almost completed, intimate friends of Mrs. Galt say. And simultaneously with this statement comes an intimation from sources close to the engaged couple that the wedding will not much longer be delayed.

Despite conjectures as to the date which have come in for details from the white house the intimates of the president remain confident that the ceremony will have been performed prior to the commencement of Thanksgiving holidays so that the new mistress of the white house can assume charge of the ancient edifice before congress convenes, on Dec. 6.

Mrs. Galt has told certain of her friends that inasmuch as her troussseau is about complete she hopes to slip away from Washington for a few days "to rest." All information regarding when she will start or when she will return is refused as is her intended destination.

SUES ON NOTES.

The J. M. Robinson, Norton & Co. sued suit in circuit court Friday against the Male Lumber Co. to collect on two promissory notes which the plaintiffs allege they hold against the lumber concern. J. H. Fulmer, Jr., A. B. Graham, W. W. Hubbard, James A. Roper and H. G. Niles, Jr., are named co-defendants. The principal on the note, the complaint charged, was $500.
